2018 FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

About

The Indiana Latino Institute Fellowship Program is designed to immerse exceptional emerging Latino leaders in their specific professional field. Selected participants in an education program consisting of pre-professional practice at an assigned site, discussions with community leaders, trips to organizations to learn about the private and public sectors, and an opportunity to receive professional development.

As part of this education program, fellows will have extraordinary access to a myriad of professionals from a variety of industries, who generously give of their time as guest speakers and mentors. Fellows will meet with leaders in Indiana who will engage them in meaningful dialogue about important issues—to the Latino community and our nation.

Purpose

The purpose of the ILI Fellowship Program is to provide gifted and highly motivated Latino students first-hand experience in their specific professional field—STEM, education, business, health, law, non-profit, government, etc. In addition to working for powerful organizations, fellows will have opportunities to build their professional skills, gain knowledge about the local community, and interact with local Latino leaders.

Fellowship Eligibility Requirements

- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
