Student Application

INDIANA
LATINO
INSTITUTE

2019 INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

About

The Indiana Latino Institute (ILI) Internship Program is designed to expose Latino college students to careers in their specific fields of study. Selected individuals spend 200 hours working at their internship site and complete assignments to enhance their internship learning experience. Interns receive professional development prior to beginning their internship, support from ILI staff throughout their internship, and a scholarship for completing the program requirements.

As part of this education program, interns will have an opportunity to explore a career to gain workforce development experience and learn about potential careers. Interns will build relationships with their mentor and with ILI staff, to support them in achieving their dreams.

Purpose

The purpose of the ILI Internship Program is to connect Indiana Latino students with professional development opportunities in their field of study. Students will receive a scholarship for completing all requirements of the summer internship program.

Internship Eligibility Requirements

- Must complete internship application and show academic ability
- Must be enrolled part-time or full-time at a college or university for the fall 2019 semester
- Must be between age 18-25
- Must participate in mandatory training on Wednesday May 22nd, Thursday May 23rd, and Friday May 24th, 2019
- Preference is given to ILI program participants

Intern Selection Process

Applicants must submit the following documents:

- Internship application
- Resume
- Official/unofficial transcript

Potential interns will be interviewed by ILI's Education Program Coordinator. Interviews and strength of documents will be considered when selecting and placing interns for the program. Applications are accepted between Feb 1, 2019 and March 31, 2019.

Students selected to participate in the Internship Program must also enroll in ILI's College Coaching Program.

Benefits of Internship Program

- Gain 200 hours of experience in field of study
- Build professional network
- Possible employment opportunities
- $1,000 Scholarship Stipend upon successful completion of program

Supervision and Time Expectation

Interns are expected to complete 200 hours between May 2019 and August 2019. This includes working at the internship site from Monday through Friday, as arranged by the Site Mentor/Supervisor.
